Nathan Bartell is an associate at Davis Graham & Stubbs LLP. His practice focuses on corporate and transactional law, including mergers and acquisitions, securities transactions, and general corporate matters. Prior to joining DGS, Mr. Bartell worked at a boutique Colorado law firm, first as a law clerk and later as the sole associate-level attorney in the firm's Corporate Group and Real Estate Transactions Group. In addition to drafting, reviewing, and revising a wide range of business and real estate-related agreements, he facilitated more than $250 million in M&A deals across a variety of industries.

Mr. Bartell currently serves as a member of the Denver Kids, Inc. Young Professionals Council. He is a member of the Colorado Bar Association and the Denver Bar Association and is a 2015 alumnus of the Venture for America entrepreneurial fellowship.

In 2020, Mr. Bartell received his J.D. from the University of Colorado Law School, where he was the recipient of several merit-based scholarships. He was involved in the University of Colorado Law Review and several student groups, including the Samuelson-Glushko Technology Law & Privacy Clinic. During law school, Mr. Bartell gained legal experience as a law clerk for Alterra Mountain Company and then as a legal extern in the Municipal Operations Section of the Denver City Attorney's Office.

Mr. Bartell holds a B.A. in English Literature and a B.S. in Political Science from Northwestern University.
