Jessica Dangoia-Crandall is an associate at Davis Graham & Stubbs LLP, where her practice focuses on corporate transactional law across a broad range of industries and includes mergers and acquisitions and representation of both investors and companies engaging in equity financing transactions. Ms. Dangoia-Crandall also advises clients on general corporate governance matters and securities topics.

Ms. Dangoia-Crandall currently serves as a Co-Chair of the Special Projects Committee for the Colorado Lawyers Committee Young Lawyers Division Board of Directors and represents Davis Graham & Stubbs in the Coalition for Racial Equity in supporting Law School... Yes We Can! She previously served as the Vice-Chair for the Colorado Technology Association's YoPro Board. She is a member of DGS's Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Committee, the Young Lawyers' Division of the Colorado Lawyers' Committee, and the Denver Bar Association.

During law school Ms. Dangoia-Crandall was a summer associate in the DGS Corporate & Business Advisory Department and completed externships at the Denver District Court and the Colorado Office of Administrative Courts. Before attending law school, she worked as a paralegal at a law firm in Jackson Hole, Wyoming and as a craft cocktail bartender in Washington, D.C.
