

JUDITH M. MATLOCK

antitrust & trade

appellate

bankruptcy & creditors' rights

coal

commercial litigation

construction & real estate litigation corporate finance & acquisitions

employee benefits

environmental

estates

franchise

income tax

labor & employment

mining

oil & gas

products liability

public lands

real estate

Judith M. Matlock joined the firm as a partner in 1995 in the Oil & Gas Group. She has been an energy practitioner in Denver since 1982 and has been involved in the oil, gas and mining industries since 1975. She represents producers in the areas of exploration and production, operations, transportation and marketing of production, and calculation and payment of royalties and taxes. Her practice also includes representing clients before the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission and State Public Utility Commissions on matters involving natural gas.

Ms. Matlock is an active participant in The Foundation for Natural Resources and Energy Law (FNREL). She has served on the Executive Committee, as a trustee and as co-chair of the Special Institutes Committee of the Foundation. She has also been the program chair for several Foundation Special Institutes and Short Courses including Natural Gas Marketing & Transportation (1991); Practical Natural Gas Marketing Short Course (1993 and 1994); Negotiating Natural Gas Contracts (1993); Environmental Regulation of the Oil & Gas Industry (1993 with Samuel D. Haas); and The Electricity Industry (1996). She is also a frequent lecturer and writer on energy topics. Some of her recent articles include "Natural Gas Processing Agreements," Natural Gas Marketing II, Paper No. 8 (Rocky Mt. Min. Law Fdn. 1988); "Problems Caused by Producer Imbalances," Natural Gas Marketing and Transportation, Paper No. 12 (Rocky Mt. Min. Law Fdn. 1991); "New Roles of Wellhead, Gathering System and Gas Plant Operators After Order No. 636," 40 Rocky Mt. Min. L. Inst. Paper 15 (1994); "Section 29 Credits - the Case Against Requiring an NGPA Well-Category Determination," 85 Journal of Taxation (August 1996) (with Laurence E. Nemirow); "Payment of Gas Royalties in Affiliate Transactions," 48th Annual Institute on Oil and Gas Law and Taxation (The Southwestern Legal Foundation 1997); "Impact of the Restructuring of the Electric Power Industry on Oil, Gas, Coal, and Other Mineral Producers," 43rd Rocky Mt. Min. L. Fdn. 1997); "Section 29 Credits Under a Cloud: Tax Court Renders Rev. Rul. 93-54 Meaningless," 88 Journal of Taxation (January 1998) (with Laurence E. Nemirow); "The MMS 1997 Transportation and Related Amendments - An Historical Legal

Analysis of Industry's Perspective," Federal and Indian Oil and Gas Royalty Valuation & Management II, Paper No. 2 (Rocky Mtn. Min. Law Fdn. 1998), "The Duty to Market Controversy - Implied, Expressed, or Otherwise - Industry's View," Federal. & Indian Oil & Gas Royalty Valuation & Management III, Paper No. 2A (Rocky Mt. Min. L. Fdn. 2000); "Hedging – What Every Producer Needs to Know," Denver Association of Petroleum Landmen, Fall Land Institute 2001; "The Wyoming Class Action Lawsuits" (an update on post-production cost litigation), handout for Independent Petroleum Association of Mountain States, September 2002; and "Royalty Calculation When the Producer/Lessee is Dealing with an Affiliated Entity," Private Oil & Gas Royalties, Paper No. 9 (Rocky Mtn. Min. Law Fdn. 2003).

Ms. Matlock received her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Colorado in 1979, graduating magna cum laude and with distinction. In 1982, she received her Juris Doctor degree from the University of Colorado where she was a member of the winning Team in the three-semester Rothgerber Appellate Advocacy Competition and received the Austin Scott Award for oral advocacy and the Dean King Award. She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Order of the Coif, and the Denver, Colorado, American, and Federal Bar Associations.